DEFENDANT: Sabahaddin AkmanCASE NUMBER: 4:14CR00003-2 AGFDistrict: Eastern District of MissouriADDITIONAL SUPERVISED RELEASE TERMS

While on supervision, the defendant shall comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this Court and shall comply with the following additional conditions. If it is determined there are costs associated with any services provided, the defendant shall pay those costs based on a co-payment fee established by the probation office.

The defendant shall provide the probation office and the Financial Litigation Unit (FLU) of the U.S. Attorney's Office access to any requested financial information. The defendant is advised that the probation office may share financial information with FLU.

The defendant shall be prohibited from incurring new credit charges or opening additional lines of credit without the approval of the probation office so long as there is a balance on the Court imposed financial obligation.

The defendant shall apply all monies received from any anticipated and/or unexpected financial gains, including any income tax refunds, inheritances, or judgments, to the outstanding Court ordered financial obligation. The defendant shall immediately notify the probation office of the receipt of any indicated monies.

The defendant shall submit his person, residence, office, or vehicle to a search conducted by the probation office based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release. The defendant shall warn any other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition.

The defendant shall pay the fine as previously ordered by the Court.

The defendant shall participate in all deportation proceedings and remain outside the United States, if deported.

*All criminal monetary penalties are due in full immediately. The defendant shall pay all criminal monetary penalties through the Clerk of Court. If the defendant cannot pay in full immediately, then the defendant shall make payments under the following minimum payment schedule: During incarceration, it is recommended that the defendant pay criminal monetary penalties through an installment plan in accordance with the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program at the rate of 50% of the funds available to the defendant. If the defendant owes any criminal monetary penalties when released from incarceration, then the defendant shall make payments in monthly installments of at least $450, or no less than 10% of the defendant's gross earnings, whichever is greater, with payments to commence no later than 30 days after release from imprisonment. Until all criminal monetary penalties are paid in full, the defendant shall notify the Court and this district's United States Attorney's Office, Financial Litigation Unit, of any material changes in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay criminal monetary penalties. The defendant shall notify this district's United States Attorney's Office, Financial Litigation Unit, of any change of mailing or residence address that occurs while any portion of the criminal monetary penalties remains unpaid.
